Dear Burt:

This is to advise you that your employee [redacted] departed from our Forward Facility A on 24 October 1956 for the continental United States.

He was last paid his field allotment for the period 1-30 September 1956. As you may or may not be aware, at Facility A we have been paying a per diem to all personnel pending the arrival of the individuals at the next post, which should be their permanent station. [redacted] was accordingly last paid per diem through 2400 hours 24 October 1956. The per diem was paid in accordance with the provision of page 3, paragraph 4 of our memorandum of "Assumptions and Understandings. . . ." and requires no adjustment in our pay accounts for this travel item. The data is furnished to you for informational purposes and to avoid R & W certifying some inadmissible costs under our personal service agreement.

It is expected you will want to report to your payroll department the information recited herein with respect to the last payment of the field allotment (salary) in order that the payroll department may incorporate the amount previously paid abroad with the domestic disbursement.

Very truly yours,

Doug
